

We're proud of our SeniorServ CEO!

While SeniorServ is local, our CEO Holly Hagler recognizes the importance of working collectively with others across the nation. We strive to maintain and use a working knowledge of significant developments and trends in the field of aging while advocating for federal funds to support senior nutrition programs. SeniorServ is a member of and has supported the efforts of the National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs (NANASP) for a number of years now. NANASP is a national membership organization for persons across the country working to provide older adults healthful food and nutrition through community-based services.

Together, we collectively advocate with the other 1,100 members from across the United States for senior health and wellbeing. We work collaboratively with key coalitions, including the Leadership Council of Aging Organizations, the Elder Justice Coalition, and Defeat Malnutrition Today, on issues which concern the older adults our members serve, such as nutrition, Medicare and Medicaid, elder justice, Social Security and other retirement security issues, transportation, and older workers' issues.

Holly Hagler, CEO of SeniorServ, newly elected President of the National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Providers (NANASP) for 2018/19 pictured with Bob Blancato, Executive Director of NANASP.